mother goose delivers!

Hey, all in-home daycare providers and preschool teachers! Mother Goose Boxes are available to you!

Mother Goose Boxes are containers of pure fun (and headache relief) that contain books, DVDs, audiocassettes, magazines and even puzzles and toys, all relating to the same theme. The Library has a selection of sixteen boxes, designed specifically for preschoolers. Themes include seasons, colors, pets, dinosaurs, friends, counting and numbers, pretending, bears, farming, bugs and more!!

Janet Kimmet, Head of Extension Services, says that "The Mother Goose Program is good opportunity for little ones get a good idea of what the library is, while at the day care providers.

For more information on the program, please contact Mrs. Kimmet at (419) 447-3751 or by e-mail to kimmetja@oplin.org.

upcoming events

Don't forget!

The Library will close at 3:00 pm on Wednesday, December 31 and be closed all day on Thursday, January 1 and Sunday, January 4.

Preschool Story Time

you won't get bored with these books

Have you seen the Junior Department's large collection of Board Books designed especially for babies? We're proud of it, so stop by and see it for yourself!

Each book in the collection has heavy cardboard pages with rounded corners, which makes a page turn easy for eager page turners! Don't worry parents, each board book is thoroughly washed before being returned to the shelf.

Parents will also find "Baby Bug" on the Board Book display. "Baby Bug" is a magazine published just for babies. Each issue has an assortment of short stories, rhymes, picture searches and beautiful drawings and photographs. Like adult magazines, these ## did you hear something?

If you didn't get enough of the Grinch this Christmas season and are in need of more Dr. Seuss hilarity, stop by the Media section in the Junior Library. Dr. Seuss' Horton Hears a Who has arrived!

The movie is the tale of Horton, the elephant, who hears a cry of help coming from a speck of dust. Even though he can't see anyone on the speck, he decides to help. As it turns out, the speck of dust is home to the Whos and they need help in protecting it. Horton agrees to help but his friends and neighbors refuse to believe that anything could survive on a tiny speck of dust. But, Horton stands by the motto that, "After all, a person is a person, no matter how small."

The film stars Steve Carell, Jim Carrey, Carol Burnett, (among many more!) and is rated G.
